Parties (Cliques and Groups) within the Legislative Yuan

1. The following parties or groups have been formed among the approximately 700 members of the Legislative Yuan:

- (1) National Reconstruction Club (Chien Kuo Chu Le Pu) (建國俱樂部). This group of SUN Fo's men is led by CHIEN Kuan-san (陳貫三), CH'EN Ku-yuan (陳國元) and others. It consists of about 42 members or 80 percent of the old Legislative members who have been elected members of the present Legislative Yuan. This group or SUN Fo Clique includes about 5 percent of the total number of members of the Legislative Yuan.
- (2) Reform Club (Ko Hsin Chu Le Pu) (革新俱樂部). This group of CH'EN Li-fu's or CC Clique men is led by HSIAO Cheng (蕭政), CHANG Tao-fan (張道藩), LEI Lien (雷廉), KU Cheng-ting (顧正廷), CH'ENG T'ien-fang (程天放), WU Chu-jen (吳錫人), HU Chien-chung (胡憲忠), FANG Chih (方志), SHAO Hua (邵華) and others. It consists of about 160 members of the present Legislative Yuan and occupies about 23 percent of the total number of members in the Yuan.
- (3) New Politics Club (Hsin Cheng Chu Le Pu) (新政俱樂部). This group of former San Min Chu I Youth Corps (present Youth Department under the Kuomintang) and Whampoa Military Clique men is led by HUANG Ju-jen (黃居仁), LIU Pu-t'ung (劉不洞), CH'IAO P'eng-shu (喬鵬書), K'ANG Tse (康澤), T'ANG Ju-yen (湯子文), LIU Chien-ch'un (劉建春), HU Shu-hua (胡曙華), HUANG Shao-ku (黃少谷) and others. Most of the above-mentioned leaders are Whampoa members in the Youth Corps. This New Politics Club includes about 200 members of the present Legislative Yuan or about 28 percent of the total number of members in the Yuan and is the strongest anti-CC Clique group in the Yuan.
- (4) People's Political Council Club (Ts'an Chen Hui Lien I Hui) (參政會聯誼會). This group of former People's Political Council (PPC) members of little party or clique nature is led by LO Heng (羅 衡), FAN Yu-sui (范 予 遂), CHIANG I-p'ing (江 一 平) and others. It consists of about 180 members of the present Legislative Yuan or about 26 percent of the total number of members in the Yuan. Except for FAN Yu-sui, who formed a New Reform Clique (Hsin Kai Tsu P'ai) (新 改 組 派) and attacked CH'EN Li-fu considerably during the election of the Vice President of the Legislative Yuan, most other members of this Club hold a comparatively neutral attitude toward "parties" or "cliques". However, members such as LO Heng will attack vigorously the activities of any members of the Executive Yuan or the Government if they feel their activities need criticizing.

- (5) CHU Chia-hua Clique. The small anti-CC Clique group of CHU Chia-hua is led by KAN Chia-hsing (甘 炎 馨), WANG Ch'i-chiang (王 啟 元) and others. It constitutes about 2.5 percent of the total number of members of the present Legislative Yuan. Its strength in the Yuan is not great; therefore, it always follows the steps of the New Politics Club in attacking the CC Clique.
- (6) Political Science Clique or rather, WU T'ieh-ch'eng's Clique. This small group is led by WU T'ieh-ch'eng, LI Po-shen (李 伯 申) and others. It constitutes about 3 percent of the total number of members of the present Legislative Yuan. Since its strength in the Yuan is not great, it has been trying to influence the minority party members in the Yuan to follow its step. Since WU is a Political Science Clique man who affiliates with the CC Clique, his group's action in the Yuan toward the CC Clique depends on the situation.
- (7) Kwangsi Clique. This small group, which occupies only about 1 percent of the total number of members of the Yuan, is led by HUANG Shao-hsiung (黃 紹 雄), CH'IU Ch'ang-wei (邱 昌 渭), CH'ENG Ssu-yuan (程 思 遠) and others. It is anti-CC Clique.

- (8) The Youth and Democratic Socialist Parties. These two minority parties, which have been bargaining with the Kuomintang for more seats in the Legislative Yuan, constitute only about a little more than 2.5 percent of the total number of members in the Yuan. Since the CC Clique has been trying to keep the minority parties from getting more seats in the Legislative Yuan, the latter's members in the Yuan are generally dissatisfied with the CC Clique.

A UP Dispatch from Nanking on 26 June 1948 reported as follows:

"Heralding the early settlement of the inter-party membership dispute, both the Youth Party and the Socialist Party today accepted representation on the National Examination Commission. The Youth Party member CHANG (CHANG Chun-mai) and TSENG Ch'i, a member of the Socialist Party, consented to be appointed as members of President CHIANG K'ai-shek. It was learned that the Youth Party had nominated Miss CHOU Chu-Yun and Judge CH'EN of the Supreme Court and MA Fu-ching and members of the Examination Commission. The Democratic Socialists are CHANG Yang-nan, SHEN Chia-yu, HSU Chieh-min."

- (9) Small groups or individuals, mostly Kuomintang members, without clique background. This group constitutes about 6 percent of the total number of members in the Legislative Yuan. Most of them are regional legislators. They either stand by themselves or group together because they come from the same region or from different regions but have suffered the same discrimination during the election of legislators - i.e., the CC Clique tried to make those "cliqueless" Kuomintang members who got more votes to give away their seats to CC Clique members who received less votes or to the minority party members who got less votes. However, the final settlement by the Generalissimo was that, between Kuomintang members those who received the most votes should win; between Kuomintang members and minority party members, the Kuomintang member in spite of getting more votes should give up his seat to the minority party member [REDACTED]. Although the minority parties have not gained many more seats out of this settlement, the "cliqueless" Kuomintang members who got more votes did finally become legislators.

(10) Unclassified legislators. These constitute about 2 percent of the total number of members of the Legislative Yuan.

2. In the present Legislative Yuan, the National Reconstruction Club and the Reform Club work together as long as SUN Fo's and CH'EN Li-fu's personal profit or loss does not come into conflict. At present, these two clubs represent the old Kuomintang controlling force. The New Politics Club, on the other hand, serves as a new Kuomintang force and an opposition party to the CC Clique, SUN Fo and all others which the New Politics Club considers "reactionary" or "conservative." Although the PPC Club holds a comparatively neutral attitude toward "party" or "clique", many of its members are in sympathy with the views of the New Politics Club. Some of the small groups of Kuomintang members without clique background also follow the New Politics Club while others follow whichever party means more profit to themselves. This undetermined attitude is also found among the unclassified legislative members. Because of WU T'ien-ch'eng's affiliation with the CC Clique, the Political Science Clique in the Legislative Yuan holds no definite attitude toward other parties in the Yuan. Since the Youth Party and the Democratic Socialist Party are both dissatisfied with the CC Clique, these two minority parties have taken about the same steps in the Yuan. However, as the minority parties are still expecting CHANG Ch'un to get more seats for them in the Legislative Yuan, the minority party members in the Yuan lean toward WU T'ien-ch'eng's Clique if WU takes steps beneficial to the Political Science Clique. Comparing the strength of the two opposing forces in the Legislative Yuan, the old Kuomintang force is less in members but superior in politics and political maneuvering. The CC members in the Yuan, especially, are experienced in parliamentary tricks and in manipulating the majority by the minority.
